is a violent character. At the very start of the play he gets involved with the street fight. He later sees Romeo and his friends at the Capulet party and threatens to fight with them there. He challenges Romeo to a duel. When Romeo refuses to fight, Mercutio steps up and ends up being killed by Tybalt. Angry at the death of his close friend, Romeo then fights with Tybalt and kills him.

is a young, passionate and impulsive character. He meets Juliet at the party. He goes to her balcony at night and declares his undying love for her. They arrange to get married in secret the very next day, showing how impulsive he really is. When Juliet's cousin, Tybalt, later challenges him, he refuses. This shows us how devoted he is to Juliet.

is a fun-loving character who enjoys life. He teases Romeo and later takes his place in a fight against Tybalt. His death results in Romeo fighting with and killing Juliet's cousin is the young daughter of Capulet and Lady Capulet. Capulet organises a party and Juliet's heart is captured by Romeo. She is headstrong and determined. she is marrying Romeo in secret. She shows strength of character and she commits to a risky plan with Friar Lawrence. She fakes her own death, and when later she finds Romeo dead by her side, she stabs herself.
