

The Springbocks

Match the elements from the first column to those from the second column.

It is the	to support the team
Their colours are	the former Government and the Apartheid
They represented	the 1995 World Cup
They lost	the only black player
Supporters are	South African rugby team
The community wants to	the match against England
François Pienaar is	Mandela's project to unify the nation
Chester is	green and golden
The team participates to	change the name of the team
Mandela decides	the captain of the team
The Spring Bocks will serve	disappointed

François and Mandela's first meeting

Tick the right answers or answer the questions

Before and during the meeting, François looks:

confident disappointed narrow-minded relaxed nervous

What's François' job?

For Mandela, this job is:

very easy just like any another job difficult insignificant

In the conversation, Mandela mentions some English traditions:

fish & chips eggs and bacon rugby cricket tea beer football roast beef

Mandela wonders (se demande) how to :

encourage the football team encourage the rugby team to give up the World Cup encourage the springboks to win the Cup discourage the team for the World Cup

Mandela explains to François that when he was in prison, he found inspiration in:

a film a poem a book a newspaper article a song

For the president, in order to build the South African nation, people need to:

keep their traditions forget their traditions make efforts and exceed their expectations

François explains that before big matches, the Springboks:

stay quiet listen to a song chosen by their captain watch a film read a poem send text messages to their families

What does Mandela want?
.....

The Springboks in the townships

The Springboks' attitude before going to and when arriving at the township François's reactions
The little boys and Chester
The evolution and changes in the scene Mandela's reaction at the report on TV	