

Step 2 : Irish legends and myths - The art of storytelling

Scan the Qr code

and do the crossword activity on Learning Apps

Let's recap !

Who : .....

When : .....

Where : .....

What : .....

How : .....

Why : .....

How many / How much : .....

Click on the link and answer to the questions

<https://www.irelandbeforeyou die.com/the-10-most-famous-myths-and-legends-from-irish-folklore/>

1) How many myths are famous in Ireland ?

.....

2) What is the origin of the Irish mythology ?

.....

3) Where do the fairies live ?

.....

4) What is the name of the most famous fairy ?

.....

5) What does the Pooka ask to peasants ? Is it a nice or naughty creature ?

.....

.....

6) What are the meanings of the butterflies colors ? Complete the grid

Blue	Yellow	Brown/ Black	White

7) What is the difference between female mermaids and male mermaids ?

.....

.....

.....

8) Say in French with your own words : what do you understand ?

"In Ireland, it is said that mermaids have a unique jewel, and if a man manages to keep the treasure, the mermaid will be forced to marry him. This will give a man a beautiful wife and great wealth; but if she recovers it, she will leave husband and children to return to the sea".

9) What does the word "leprechaun" means in Gaelic ?

10) Describe the leprechaun appearance.

11) What is the name of the horse goddess ?

12) What musical instrument has the power to give back joy to men ?

13) Give the name of a plant which is the symbol of Ireland and Saint Patrick.

14) What is the name of sinister riders who have their heads in their lap ? Where do they live ?

Let's recap : write memorable details you want to remind after the reading of the written comprehension on the Irish myths

Rappel : Comment construire une question ?

Ecrivez trois questions de votre choix venant de l'activité précédente

Surlignez les mots interrogatifs. Soulignez les verbes.
Que pouvez- vous dire concernant l'ordre des mots ?

