We shall overcome...                      We need your help                      Again

I am prepared to...                      To free... from                      I will not...

I will...                      A new day has come ...                      I am talking about...                      For instance...

At last ...                      I refuse...                      Trust me...

                    In the near future...                      We have to                      One should be

                    Listen, my friends...                      I know for certain...                      Today...

We have to...                      I cannot accept                      We can change things

                    I think it is right...                      It is high time we (+ED)

                    Everyone has to...                      I am talking about...

Stand for...                      I want to welcome you all...                      In a way...

No doubt...                      That is...

                    I hope                      I am reaching out to you because...                      ...is your issue too!

                    I protest against

                    The more... the more...                      On my behalf...

Believe me...

                    But...

We are here today...                      We denounce...

                    I wish I / we (+ED)                      Tomorrow...                      Deep in my heart I do believe...

I want to

We need                      Follow...                      Be involved

                    No way...

All of you here today...

                    You have to                      All I know is that...

Support...                      ...should be...                      I have a dream...

                    To me, it is our responsibility / our duty to...
