Conseils :

A la maison et en autonomie, travaillez ce vocabulaire nécessaire à l'expression de son opinion en anglais

1. Observez bien chaque catégorie
2. Apprenez le vocabulaire pour chaque catégorie
3. Aidez vous s'il le faut d'un traducteur
4. N'apprenez pas tout d'un coup
5. Répétez à voix haute s'il le faut

Ensuite, afin de tester vos connaissances, allez sur le lien suivant et entraînez vous à retrouver tout le vocabulaire :

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL https://fr.educaplay.com/ressources-pedagogiques/8156928-expressing_opinion_in_english.html. The main content area features a green background with a 3x3 grid of letters (A-C) for a memory game. The title "Expressing opinion in English" is at the top. Below it, a text box says: "In this exercise you will learn the vocabulary necessary to give your opinion in English language but also to ask someone's, to agree or to disagree." A large orange "Start" button is centered. To the right, there are two boxes: one for creating a activity and another for creating a challenge. Below these is a "Top 10 résultats" section with a trophy icon and a message: "Il n'y a toujours pas de résultats pour cette activité. Soyez le premier à apparaître dans le classement! Connectez-vous". The bottom of the screen shows the Windows taskbar with various icons.

Rejouez autant de fois qu'il le faut, l'objectif étant de connaître votre vocabulaire quand vous arriverez en cours.

Replying to @GretaThunberg

It seems they will cross every possible line to avert the focus, since they are so desperate not to talk about the climate and ecological crisis.

Being different is not an illness and the current, best available science is not opinions - it's facts. ->
